Making Memories

Celebration Room

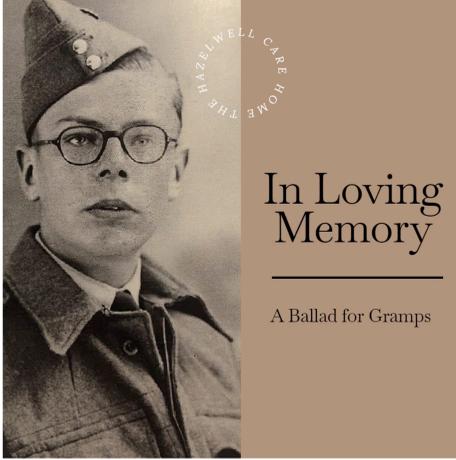

At The Hazelwell, the commitment to providing exceptional care services is complemented by a focus on fostering connections and celebrating life's meaningful moments. The recently opened Celebration Room is a testament to this dedication, providing a designated area where residents and their loved ones can come together for birthdays, anniversaries, and other significant events.

The Celebration Room, a charming small dining space, boasts exceptional views over the Dee Estuary, creating a serene backdrop for gatherings. What sets this space apart is its direct access to the Second Floor terrace, allowing attendees to bask in the beauty of the surroundings and enjoy the fresh air during their celebrations.

Residents and their families can pre-book the Celebration Room through Reception or The Hazelwell's dedicated Wellbeing Co-ordinator, who ensures that every event is thoughtfully catered for. While there is a nominal charge associated with reserving the space, it's important to note that this charge does not apply to the resident, underscoring The Hazelwell's commitment to enhancing the resident experience.

Recently, a party was set up for a 44th year Wedding Anniversary and Birthday celebration for our resident's wife. Happy Birthday and Happy Anniversary R & J! We hope you had a fabulous day!

A Ballad for Gramps

Our regular readers will have enjoyed the poetry of one of our residents, Rex, over the last months. Either on our Facebook Page or in our newsletter.

Sadly, Rex passed away over Christmas surrounded by his loved ones. His grandson, Stephen, has inherited his Grandie's poetry skills though and wrote this ballad to say farewell.

A Ballad for Gramps

Grandpa, Grandie,
Gramps and Dad,
The tears of today,
Will soon ease up just a tad,
And turn into smiles,
At the memories we had

Flying down the aisles,
On your weekly shop,
Gammon and eggs,
With a pineapple on top,
Glenfiddich or Guinness,
When you needed a drop

At Hazelwell,
Your cherished view,
The kind hearted staff,
You too briefly knew,
Without them who'd know,
You were a poet too!

You turned 94 years,
On the 8th of June,
Yet it somehow still feels,
Like you've gone too soon,
We'll forever remember,
That July afternoon

Good night,
And God bless,
Grandpa
